

What's New About Men ... That Women Want to Know.

A presentation designed for women's groups & meetings, as well as any other group!

Available for a limited time at no charge
(available times are limited--contact soon)
Presentation time from 20 min to a 4 hr. workshop.

Designed & Presented by: Martin Brossman

This presentation, designed specifically for women's groups, gives attendees a compelling glimpse into the book "Finding Our Fire—Enhancing men's connection to heart, passion and strength" and CD "What Does it Mean to Be a Man of Your Word" by Martin Brossman. Drawn from a men's discussion group he founded called The Men's Inquiry*, the book includes Martin's personal anecdotes plus contributions from over 100 men who responded, as they do in the Inquiry meetings, to thought-provoking questions with authentic emotion and surprising insights. Hear Martin's vision for the male-female relationship as he describes the three types of men & how they affect women, and offers practical methods for men of all ages to mature and change. Martin has worked on this material for over 10 years and reveals what he has found, as well as his personal experience in this presentation.

- ▶ The stages of the maturing of boys to men and how it effects all relationships
- ▶ The three types of men and how it affects our culture
- ▶ How the concepts make women more effective in both business and personal life
- ▶ Application for both single and married women of all ages, including single mothers raising sons.

If you think you understand something, you run the risk of believing the map is the territory, which is how people limit possibility and breed resignation. This presentation broadens the understanding of the territory of men which gives women a greater understanding of men as well as appreciation of themselves.

What women have said about this presentation:

"Martin speaks from the heart about men's issues in today's society. He offers a sound action plan for those men willing and brave enough to take the journey into true manhood. He explains how men can express themselves, be tender yet strong at the same time. I found Martin to be an inspirational speaker who is passionate about his work and making a much needed change in our culture. I highly recommend that both men and women hear what Martin Brossman has to say."

Sally Hanson Griffie

"Bravo! Congratulations on your outstanding presentation to Trendsetters at the Capital City Club last week. It was great to learn more about your work and understand how you approach serious social issues one man at a time.

Martin, thank you for sharing yourself with us and for the important work you do on a daily basis. I am very impressed with your courage and passion."

Susan Rumble

*The Men's Inquiry is a venue where healthy men explore questions about their lives together. Questions such as "What does it mean to be a leader or mentor? What type of Son were you to your father? What works in keeping a long-term relationship passionate and alive? What does it mean to you to be a man today? The Men's Inquiry is not faith-based, and men of all walks of life are welcome.

About the developer and presenter: Martin W. Brossman has a passion for enhancing relationships. Martin is the founder of both the Men's & Women's Inquiry . He has been interviewed on national talk shows, published in local and national magazines, and assisted with relationship courses at Esalen Institute in CA. He is the VP of The Triangle Men's Center. His personal training in 'Men's Work' includes The Sterling Men's Weekend and the ManKind Adventure - New Warrior Training. He has also assisted with the development of "Wild at Heart" church-based men's groups and built one of the largest discussion groups on the web of the same title. In his Success Coaching he has helped men and women enhance their prosperity and their relationships for over 10 years.

For more information Martin Brossman @ (919) 847-4757 or Martin@CoachingSupport.com, 6260-100 Glenwood Ave., Suite 251, Raleigh NC 27612